Are you committing scriptural suicide?

You may ask what do you mean by scriptural suicide? Well, as important as the word of GOD is to us, shouldn't we want to have the correct interpretation regarding its meaning? Shouldn't you want to know how it can help you in your life? I am sure you would agree with these questions. Know this, that our failure to correctly interpret and apply the word of GOD in our lives is equivalent to committing scriptural suicide. GOD does not tolerate error nor is he the author of it. I'll tell you who is. Satan himself is the author of confusion and error in the churches today. 1 Timothy 4:1; 1 John 4:6. Since GOD cannot lie, but is the TRUTH only. Shouldn't we walk in truth and not a lie? Agreed? If we are confused about something in the word shouldn't we pray and ask GOD? What? Do you think He will not answer? Why then do many flock to men and denominations to interpret the word for them instead of going to GOD? This is a witness against you. The Bible says, there are some things in the scriptures that are hard to be understood which the unlearned and unstable wrest unto their own destruction. 2 Peter 3:16. Knowing this shouldn't you ask GOD if what you believe and are doing is correct? One day GOD will require an answer of you. Matthew 7:21-23.

Beloved, the word of GOD, the Bible, is a spiritual work, and in order to correctly understand it you should read it in the Spirit. Jesus said it is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. John 6:63. The sad thing about it is that most people do not read the Bible in the Spirit, but in the flesh. As if they are reading this week's best seller or yesterday's news. This leads to all manner of confusion and error in churches. Scriptural knowledge does not come by hard study, but by prayer and an earnest seeking of GOD's word. Having the Holy Ghost will keep you from error. 1 John 2:27.

GOD says in his word that He does not change. Malachi 3:6; Psalm 102:27; James 1:17. Yet, many denominations say that He does not do many of the things He did in the past. How then can GOD suddenly not do something that He had always done and yet not have changed. Is this a correct interpretation? He said, I am the same today, yesterday and forever. Hebrews 13:8. Either He lied or He really cannot change. Therefore, if He ever healed He still has to do it. If He ever saved, He still has to save. If He ever did miracles, why all of the sudden did the GOD that says He is always the same stop? Has anyone bothered to ask GOD if He stopped? Or if He has changed? Is it even necessary when the word says He does not change? Yet why do so many believe and say that GOD still saves, but He no longer heals or do miracles, prophesy, or you name it. Why? Because they being rebellious and stiff-necked have found one scripture out of sixty-six books which they have twisted unto their own destruction. Jeremiah 17:23. They have committed scriptural suicide!

Yes, the blood has not lost all of its power. If Jesus healed yesterday, rest assure that he can heal today. If Jesus performed miracles yesterday, he can still perform them today. He can still prophesy, give a tongue or its interpretation, heal and do wonders. The reason why you don't see it is because you don't believe! You have limited GOD to the point where He is unprofitable to you. Mark 6:5-6; Luke 18:8. It takes faith to please GOD. Hebrews 11:6. Anything that is not of faith is sin. Romans 14:23. If this is important to you then ask GOD to forgive you of your scriptural ignorance and rebellion, and to turn this thing around for your good. James 5:19-20.
